New Republic Partners' Ralph Strayhorn Elected Vice Chairman of Golden LEAF Foundation Board of Directors and Chair of Investment Committee

Golden LEAF Foundation Works to Improve North Carolina Communities Through Investment, Grant-Making and Job Creation

CHARLOTTE, December 9, 2021 ~ Ralph Strayhorn, chairman and chief executive officer of New Republic Partners, has been elected by the Golden LEAF Foundation board of directors to serve as vice chairman of its board and chair of its investment committee. The Golden LEAF investment committee oversees $1.4 billion in assets under management. Strayhorn is serving his third term on the foundation board as an appointee of the Secretary of State of North Carolina.

The Golden LEAF Foundation is a nonprofit organization established in 1999 to receive a portion of North Carolina's funding from the 1998 Master Settlement Agreement with cigarette manufacturers. Over two decades, Golden LEAF has funded 1,962 projects totaling more than $1 billion and creating 66,000 jobs to increase economic opportunity in North Carolina's rural, economically distressed and tobacco-dependent communities.

Strayhorn leads New Republic Partners, a financial services firm providing wealth management, investment solutions and banking services throughout the Southeast. A lifetime resident of North Carolina and career financial services professional in the Southeast, Strayhorn is familiar with the state's business and economic challenges and opportunities.

"I believe strongly in Golden LEAF's mission of providing grants and other assistance to local governments and nonprofits to support economic growth," Strayhorn says. "I'm particularly interested in fostering growth in our community college system to prepare North Carolinians for careers in the new economy. The foundation has also supported continued technological advances in agricultural production, which will help rural residents build thriving careers."
