MARK T. ALLAN JOINS NEW REPUBLIC PARTNERS AS MANAGING DIRECTOR

CHARLOTTE, August 29, 2023 — New Republic Partners is pleased to announce Mark T. Allan has joined the firm as a managing director. Allan will work with family offices, RIAs, endowments, foundations and individuals on alternative investment solutions across both public and private markets through the firm’s unique alternative asset class vehicles.

Allan brings decades long career expertise in alternative investment consulting, investment management and fund management.

“Mark brings a valuable alternatives perspective, with career experience in a variety of key investment management and fund management roles,” said Tom Hoops, CEO of New Republic Partners. “His expertise will allow us to increase our reach in serving investors whose portfolio goals align with these solutions.”

Allan will be based in Charleston, South Carolina, and will work with the firm’s clients across the nation.

“I’m looking forward to working with the talented investment management and wealth advisory teams at New Republic Partners,” said Allan. “Their innovative approaches are well suited for helping investors navigate today’s markets and reach their family or institutional goals.”

Before joining New Republic Partners, Allan served as an alternatives investment consultant at Family Asset Management, an RIA based in Charleston, South Carolina. He also worked as a partner at Scopia Capital in New York where he was involved in portfolio construction, capital allocation, trading and risk management.

Prior to his work at Scopia, Allan was a principal at Clovis Capital where he helped launch their fund and foster its growth, enabling the firm to become a large, respected player in the alternative asset management industry.

He began his extensive alternatives career at Ridgecrest Partners after working as an equities trader at the Montgomery Securities division of Bank of America.

Allan graduated from the University of Virginia with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history. He is a current member of the Benefactors Society Board at UVA and serves on the regional selection committee for the Jefferson Scholars Foundation. He is a former board member of Charleston Moves in Charleston, S.C.
