NEW REPUBLIC PARTNERS EXPANDS INTO THE DENVER REGION, HIRES WILL AMERINE AS MANAGING DIRECTOR

DENVER, CO., Feb. 15, 2024 - New Republic Partners has announced the hire of Will Amerine as Managing Director to lead the firm's expansion in Denver and the broader Rocky Mountain region. New Republic Partners is a privately held investment management and advisory firm that provides customized portfolios, asset-class-specific fund offerings, and wealth planning from a seasoned wealth advisory and family office services team.

Amerine brings two decades of experience serving multi-generational families of wealth with comprehensive and deeply personalized investment strategies, family governance guidance, generational planning, and philanthropy.

Prior to joining New Republic Partners, Amerine served as a Managing Director at Geller Advisors and Cresset. Previous to those roles, Amerine helped launch the Denver office of Ascent Private Capital Management of U.S. Bank, serving on the firm's leadership committee as the head of national business development.

"We are thrilled to welcome Will to the New Republic Partner's team and build out our presence in Denver and the Rocky Mountain region," said CEO Tom Hoops. "Will brings exactly the depth of experience and expertise that our client families and institutions expect and deserve."

"It's incredibly exciting to have the opportunity to present New Republic Partners' robust capabilities to successful families and institutions in the Rocky Mountain region," Amerine added. "There are so many families in this region that are looking for a firm that understands their complex financial needs and is unequivocally committed to their best interests at all times. That is exactly what New Republic Partners provides. I look forward to building out a team of family office advisors who share the same values as we grow our practice in Denver."

Amerine is involved in a number of professional organizations in the Denver region, including the Rocky Mountain Estate Planning Council and the board of trustees for the Greater Colorado Boy Scout Council. He is also active in youth sports in the Evergreen, Colo., community as a board member for West Jeff Baseball.

Amerine graduated from Hendrix College in Conway, Ark., with a Bachelor of Arts in business and economics. He earned an MBA from The Ohio State University Fisher College of Business.
